About Us

The Prince Albert Historical Society, located on the bank of the North Saskatchewan River, operates four museums in the City of Prince Albert- the Historical Museum, the John and Olive Diefenbaker Museum National Historic Site, the Rotary Museum of Police and Corrections, and the Evolution of Education Museum. These four museums, located in three areas of the city, represent the story of Prince Albert's people in their own distinct theme.

Job Summary

The Museum Interpreters, working during the months of May through August, share in and contribute to a strong team atmosphere while carrying out responsibilities for the day-to-day operation of the museums. Typical duties include guiding tours, providing information services, conducting research, and assisting in the day-to-day operations.

Museum Interpreters will have an interest in local history, be friendly and outgoing, enjoy meeting members of the public, and display a high degree of motivation.
